Walla Walla Union Convention

WALLA WALLA, March 24, 1867.

The Union County Convention of Walla Walla county having assembled, was called to order by the Chairman of the Union Central Committee, Mr Cook

On motion Mr Flanders, of Wallula, was unanimously elected temporary chairman, and C Moore, temporary secretary

On motion a Committee on Credentials and Order of Business was appointed by the Chair, consisting of Messrs. Cox, Stone, Hull, Walker, and Hedrick.

On motion of Mr P B Johnson, a committee of five on Permanent Organization was appointed by the Chair, consisting of Messrs Johnson, Bond, Smith, Wood, and Sherry

On motion of Mr. Parker, a Committee of five on Resolutions was appointed by the Chair as follows Messrs Parker, Cook, Wood, Reynolds, and Smith

On motion of Mr Cook, the chairman, Mr. Flanders, was added to the Committee on Resolutions

Convention adjourned till 2 o'clock

2½ P M.

Convention re-assembled, Mr. Flanders in the Chair Minutes read and adopted.

The following named persons were elected Delegates to the Territorial Convention: Anderson Cox, Alvan Flanders, D S Baker, J F. Wood, and J M. Hedrick.

During the counting of the ballot, the Convention was addressed by Dr Baker, Judge Wyche, Messrs. Cox and Parker, in an able manner.

The following was received and adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, 1st That self-preservation is the first law alike of nations, and of nature, and that upon the conclusion of a war that has cost the loyal States half a million lives, and imposed on the Nation a debt of three thousand millions of dollars, it is both right and duty of the Government to exact such terms of its late enemies as will give the people enduring peace, and lay the foundation of the Government in justice and freedom.

2d That as the loyal people sustained the Government, and carried the country triumphantly through the dangers which beset it, in the late rebellion, the settlement of the questions growing out of the war, belong properly to them, and the only right the rebel States have in the matter, is to accept such terms as in the opinion of a patriotic people, the glory and the safety of the Nation may require.

3d That the work of reconstruction, and the terms on which the rebel States may again participate in the Government, belongs properly to Representatives elected to Congress, fresh from the people; and the Union people of Walla Walla cordially endorse the measures adopted by Congress for the restoration and reconstruction of the rebel States?

4th. That National interests require the early construction of the Northern Pacific Railroad, and, that the Government should extend to this road the same aid, in lands and money, given to the Central Pacific Railroad.

5th. That while, as a patriotic people, we cheerfully pay the taxes requisite to support the Government and gradually extinguish the public debt, we are in favor of the strictest scrutiny and the most rigid economy and honesty in the management of National affairs, to the end that taxes may at an early day be materially reduced.

H. PARKER, Ch'n Com.

Mr. Stevens offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That as in the past, in the crisis of our nation's peril, when the clouds of treason hung dark and blackening like a pall over our land, we stood firm in our loyalty to the Union, so in the future will we be steadfast and true in our unalterable devotion to the cause of freedom

The following resolution, offered by Mr. Parker, was adopted:

Resolved, That in the Hon. A A. Denny, our Delegate to Congress, we recognize a faithful servant, and one entitled to the continued confidence of Union people of the Territory.

Mr. Wood offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the delegates from this county be instructed to vote for Judge J. E Wyche, as the first choice of the people of this county, as Delegate to Congress, and to use all honorable means to secure his nomination.

The following was offered by Aderson Cox.

Resolved, That the resolution of Mr. Wood, proposing to instruct the Delegates to favor the nomination of J E Wyche, be amended by striking out the name of J E. Wyche, and inserting the name of Alvin Flanders as the first choice of this Convention.

The following was offered by Mr. Cook, as an amendment to the amendment

Resolved, That the delegates elect to the Territorial Convention, go without any special instructions from this Convention.

The amendment of Mr. Cook passed, supplanting the original motion and amendment.

The following resolution, offered by Mr. Cook, passed:

Resolved, That hereafter no duly elected delegate to the Union County Convention of Walla Walla county, W. T., shall hold a proxy or power of substitution, or be permitted to discharge any of the duties arising from such power of substitution by virtue thereof

And be it further resolved, That no person shall be entitled to represent a delegate to said Convention by virtue of said proxy or power of substitution, who may already hold a power of substitution by proxy from any other delegate, or who shall not, at the time, be a legal voter of the precinct in which he may reside

Mr Johnson offered the following.

Resolved, That a Union Central County Committee of seven be appointed by the chair, a majority of the committee to be residents of Walla Walla city

Resolved, That the Central Committee have full power to conduct the coming canvass in such manner as they shall think best calculated to advance the interests of the party.

On motion, the resolution was laid on the table.

Mr Wood offered the following, which was passed

Resolved, That when this convention adjourns, that it adjourn to meet at the call of the Central Committee

Convention adjourned

A. FLANDERS, Chairman.

C MOORE, Sec'y

A MODERN HERCULES.—To be the strongest man in the world is not an unenviable position, and feats of strength are interesting sights, and frequently furnish topics of conversation and discussion. Such has been the case at Chesterfield, England, recently, at the Spa Hotel, in regard to feats of strength of a native of Australia, who gave a seance there before a sprinkling of a number of the corporation, the medical profession, solicitors, veterinary surgeons, bankers, and some of the most respectable inhabitants of Chesterfield Professor Hercules having exhibited some very valuable and handsome presents, proceeded to hold a fifty six pound weight in various positions at arm's length, and at the same time standing upon four tumbler glasses He also held weights on the top of the glass, and allowed a glass of water to be placed upon the top of the weights He laid flat upon the floor and let a fifty six pound weight fall a distance of about a yard on to his bare chest, and the weight rebounded as though it had come in contact with a piece of India rubber A piece of stone four inches thick was next placed upon his chest, and Hinch, blacksmith, smashed it to fragments at two blows Hinch and Turner then cut a piece of two inch iron in two across his chest, with the hammer and chisel The feats concluded by Professor Hercules laying flat upon the floor and allowing Hinch to strike him with all his strength on the chest with a sixteen pound sledge hammer The blow was met by the Professor and the hammer rebounded without leaving a scratch upon his body The audience were astounded, and so expressed themselves by their repeated rounds of applause The Professor challenges the world as an athlete, for £1,000

HOLDING ON TO THE NIGGER.—The old Bourbon Presbyterians of Tennessee recently held an assembly in Memphis and declared that they had no hesitation in affirming "that the views and opinions of Southern Christians on the subject of slavery have neither been revolutionized nor even modified by the events of the past six years"

According to M Leverrier, a French astronomer, we shall have a shower of meteors next August, surpassing in brilliancy and extent those of last year.

The Daily Oregonian.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 10, 1867.

Testimony not from a "Radical" Source.

It has often been asserted, and is still frequently reiterated that all the distinguished army officers are opposed to the policy which has been pursued towards the South during the last two years. The advocates of "clemency and magnanimity"—or to speak more properly, the apologists and defenders of rebellion,—have often declared that our brave soldiers scorn as cowardly and infamous, the conduct of the "dominant party" toward a "fallen enemy." The true soldier, they have told us, would never impose odious conditions on a "vanquished people," or hold them guilty of crime whose only offence was that they had fought bravely to uphold what they "believed to be a holy cause." The course pursued by our distinguished military officers for some months past has probably by this time caused some modification of this opinion. Many of these officers have lately expressed themselves in very decided language on these matters, and neither their words nor actions evince that considerate tenderness for Southern feeling which is lauded in such high terms by those who so sadly misuse the word "magnanimity." It is evident that General Sheridan does not believe that the doctrine which enjoins forgiveness of enemies requires loyal men to concede that the rebellion was nothing more than an honest difference of opinion, which true charity should tolerate if not commend and applaud. This gallant officer for his course at New Orleans deserves the gratitude of every man who was loyal to the country during the great struggle. The President would no doubt remove him if he dared; but he is afraid to remove an officer whose only offense is that of having fearlessly done his duty. The rebels of Sheridan's department have found him a tough customer, and they and their Northern friends are beginning to abuse and vilify him as they have done Butler ever since his efficient administration in New Orleans. Generals Thomas, Ord, Sickles and others who have been on duty in the South since the surrender of rebel armies, have also in repeated instances expressed decided opinions that "no conciliatory policy," so-called, would suffice, but that vigorous measures were necessary to eradicate disloyalty and to protect the lives and property of loyal men. The late letter of that noble hero, General Thomas, to the Mayor of Rome, Georgia, is worthy of the attention of those who believe that our great soldiers are all "Conservatives" and that they condemn as "cowardly and infamous" the general policy of the "Radicals." We make a single extract from this letter:

> The late civil war was a rebellion, and history will so record it. Those engaged in it are and will be pronounced rebels. Rebellion implies treason, and treason is a crime, and a heinous one, too, and deserving of punishment; and that traitors have not been punished is owing to the magnanimity of the conquerors. With too many of the South the late civil war is called a revolution—rebels are called "Confederates," loyalists to the country are called damned Yankees and traitors, and over the whole great crime, with its accursed record of slaughtered heroes, patriots murdered because of their true-hearted love of country, widowed wives and orphan children, and prisoners of war slain amid such horrors as find no parallel in the history of the world, they are trying to throw the gloss of respectability, and thrusting with contumely and derision from their society the men and women who would not join hands with them in the work of ruining the country. Everywhere in the States lately in rebellion treason is respectable and loyalty odious. This the people of the United States, who ended the rebellion and saved the country, will not permit, and [illegible] to [illegible] this unnatural order of things [illegible] by decided disapproval.

These are the words of a soldier whose services in the great conflict were hardly inferior to those of any one. Is General Thomas a "cowardly [illegible]" for saying these things about a "fallen enemy?" The hero of Chickamauga and Nashville believes that the rebellion was a crime and does not hesitate to say so. He is not so tender of the feelings of those who engaged in it as to exclaim in the language of some Copperhead [illegible]: "These people were honest in their views and actions; God forbid that we should judge them!" The plain, blunt soldier is not quite so [illegible] about this matter as some politicians [illegible] who wished for his defeat when he was confronted by rebel armies. The truth is as General Thomas has stated it: No sophistry, no lapse of time can mitigate the ineffable wickedness of the slaveholders' rebellion. The mark of infamy is upon those who without cause raised their parricidal hands against a beneficent Government, who filled the land with graves, who filled it with widows and orphans, and who fastened upon it a debt which it must tax the energies of generations to pay. The crime is inexcusable, and they who say that such guilt will find palliation mistake the temper of the people and the verdict of history.

The leech trade of Australia is becoming an important business. Steamers go out from Melbourne to the region of swamps and lagoons, one hundred or two hundred miles away, and sometimes collect from 150,000 to 250,000 leeches on a single trip. At Melbourne they are put up for transmission abroad. Large numbers of them are sent to London and Paris, where it is stated they are preferred to leeches brought from any other place; but the principal outlet for the export is America, where the demand is always great, [illegible] the [illegible] of the proper kind of leech throughout the whole of the continent. The shipments are made to San Francisco, Panama, and New York, whence they become distributed in all directions. The business is rapidly increasing, and the supply of leeches is said to be almost unlimited.

CHANGE OF ROUTE.—A private dispatch from Senator Corbett received here yesterday indicates that a change will shortly be made in the mail routes of Eastern Oregon so that the mails will go through direct from Umatilla to La Grande, instead of making the circuit by Walla Walla as heretofore. The route will follow the Meacham road, effecting a considerable reduction both in distance and time. Under this arrangement the Salt Lake mails will make the trip one day sooner than by Walla Walla. We understand that the change will be very satisfactory to the people of both Union and Umatilla counties.

JOHN CHINAMAN AND JOHN JAPANESE.—The Carson Appeal gets off the following:

Zach Montgomery, with his Occidental and Vanguard, diverts his fire from the Protestant American school system and from the Abolitionists to the poor, Irishman-persecuted Chinamen. The Morning Call, quack pretender to a jealous love for the workingmen, forgets for the moment to snivel a fawning acquiescence in "my policy," and, offering a feeble and hesitating justification of the late riots, pules its paltry platitudes against the "Coolies." In the meantime Odo Tamaguro and Matzmoto Judigo, two "Mongolians," of a complexion and a civilization in no manner superior to the Chinamen who have made San Francisco the only mart for Chinese goods in the United States, and who have invested more capital in that city than is owned by Asiatics in all the balance of America, come and put themselves up at the Occidental Hotel and get known as "Ambassadors from Japan," and straightway the anti-Coolie press joins in the universal cry of admiration and respect for their Japanese highnesses, and it is soon forgotten that "Mongolians" are such wretched creatures and so much to be despised by all the friends of the "dignity of labor." There is more deliberate, pusillanimous, flunkeyish abasement to unreasoning popular prejudice on the part of self-styled "Conservatives" and "Democrats of these United States than is perceptible in the demagogue doings of all the rest of Christendom. If poor John Chinaman could in any way affect the next primary elections he would be flattered with the assertion that he was the best fellow in the world.

Among the articles to be sent to Paris from Newfoundland are fishing nets and gear, models of fishing and sealing craft, sealing gear, fish, and fish barrows and scales, Esquimaux curiosities and models, and Newfoundland biscuit.

The most ancient manuscripts are written without accents, stops or separations between the words, nor was it until after the ninth century that copyists began to have space between words.

STATE ITEMS.

Delinquent taxes in Benton county amount to $1,710 17.

There are 805 school children in Salem between the ages of 4 and 20.

The Press mentions that ten or a dozen deserters from the army passed through Umatilla last week on their way to the guard house at Vancouver.

The Unionist learns that Mrs. Douglas, wife of Rev. Mr. Douglas, whose brother died in Portland of the small pox, has taken the disease. She attended upon her brother-in-law here during his sickness.

The following named persons were elected city officers at Eugene last week: For Mayor, J. B. Underwood; Councilmen, C. C. Croner, F. B. Dunn, Jason Owen; Recorder, O. H. Moses; Treasurer, T. G. Hendricks; Marshal, Lewis Miller.

The people of Union county have forwarded to his Excellency Governor Woods, a petition for military aid. Accompanying the petition is the scalp of what is thought by some to be from the head of a white woman. The scalp was found among the Snake Indians. The editor of the Unionist has examined the scalp, and thinks it that of an Indian.

The Umatilla paper says: The appearance of the city is being improved by several substantial buildings. Mr. Whitney has erected a fine large fire-proof warehouse on F street, to be occupied by one of our Umatilla firms as a forwarding and commission depot. A fine large house is being erected on G street, designed for a drug store and barber-shop. Both of these buildings are quite an addition to the town.

The Corvallis Gazette says: The Enterprise passed up the river on last Wednesday, and the Active on Thursday, both heavily laden with freight for points above. Mr. Hamilton, the wharfinger at this place, reported the Enterprise so heavily laden, that Capt. Miller refused to take a "band-box" from this place. The merchants of Harrisburg, Lancaster, Eugene City, and other points above here, are very anxious to improve the present rise of the river.

The Unionist states that the Adjutant-General of Oregon has received an official communication from the Adjutant-General of the United States, calling for the "return" of the militia for the year 1866 for the State of Oregon, as required by the Act of Congress, approved March 2d, 1803. This "return" has not been forwarded by the State Adjutant for the reason that many of the county officials have failed thus far to forward to him their reports. Section 1, 2 and 4, of the militia law as published in the code, prescribes the duties of county officials, and affixes the penalties for neglecting to comply therewith. The following is a list of the counties that are yet delinquent: Jackson, Josephine, Lane, Linn, Marion, Polk, Washington, Multnomah, Columbia, Wasco, Grant, Umatilla, Baker, Tillamook and Curry.

Evading the Point.

EDITOR OREGONIAN: "The superficial, sophistical and disingenuous radical argument" of your correspondent, has unsheathed the egotistical, dogmatic and foxy old party drill sergeant of the Herald. My "brief communication" possessed no "intrinsic qualities in itself." Why should the Herald-man throw away nearly two mortal columns of his space in an effort to answer it? I say an "effort," for, though wasting a great deal of learning (?) upon extrinsic, immaterial and outside issues, Mr. Brown does not touch—or, touching, only admits—the real point in issue. What was that point? But two ideas run through my communication. One was that the lessons of the revolution that had just passed over the country, ought to teach political leaders to put a higher value upon educational agencies than upon party drill. The other idea was, that, judging by the Herald, and prints of its character, it was impossible to beat that lesson into the obtuse, or obstinate, craniums of party leaders whose character had been forged in the old school. That they were still bent upon going on in the old beaten ruts of party drill to the neglect of education, notwithstanding their bitter and dear-bought experience in the past. Has the Herald refuted these positions? Has it shown wherein they were unsound? Has it shown wherein it, and its party, have given more attention to educational agencies since the revolution than before? It admits that "the Puritans" have beaten him and his party in the race for the possession of the educational agencies and institutions of the country. It admits the value and importance of these institutions. Why, then, does it not devote its time and attention to the key of the situation rather than to party drill? Simply, as I think, because the Herald editor is a politician of the old school, and not a statesman who can comprehend the philosophy of the times in which he lives. The Herald says "I scout the maxim that history is philosophy teaching by example!" I do not. But I do scout the idea that a certain school of old "Democratic Bourbons" are capable of learning anything, whether from the philosophy of history, or of any other philosophy. We find them, year in and year out, running around in the same old, "vicious circle" of "party drill" and party excitement just previous to elections, and virtually neglecting the social and political education of the people for the balance of the time. Is not that so, Mr. Brown? And if it is undeniable that it is so, whose fault is it? Is it the fault of the enemy, who, finding your most important points abandoned by you, takes them and turns them to his own advantage? That is his business. He deserves credit for it. Is it not notorious that Mr. Brown's party has no educational agencies or institutions that it can call its own? It has no literary men of much account. It has no literary societies. It has no libraries. It has neither clubs nor lyceums for mental improvement. It will not support literature, but it will support whisky-shops and other disreputable places. The instruments of mental and moral culture which are the foundations of success, it studiously ignores. And it has them not, simply and because it suffers itself to be led by the old drill sergeants who are incapable, by reason of their instincts and education, of perceiving their importance who are incapable, now that the main support of the party in the South has been destroyed—of organizing it for victory.

The Herald, true to its instincts, says: "If the Democratic party had been controlled by party drill, it would not have been divided, and suffered a minority party to come into power." That is, if party drill had been sufficient to supply the place of a sound political education. But no party drill can do that. For instance, no amount of party drill could have kept the Charleston Convention together. Why? Because the leaders of the Northern Democracy had, long before, abandoned the education of the people to their opponents. So long as these leaders had a sufficient number of votes in the North, to make, with the united South, a majority of the electoral college—to secure them a President and the officers—they did not care whether the people were educated or ignorant. The disintegration at Charleston was not owing to the lack of party drill, but to this Democratic abandonment of education. Mr. Douglas had found that the educational agencies had undermined him. He had to defer to public sentiment as he found it, in order to secure his re-election to the United States Senate. He made his Freeport speech in deference to this public opinion. His followers took the same ground. They took that position—their love of office and their man-worship into the convention. And these were what broke it up, and not the lack of party drill. Primarily it was the indolence of Mr. Douglas' party and the energy of its opponent in the cause of education, that broke up the Charleston Convention.

I will not follow the Herald in its wanderings into the realms of French history. It has no bearing upon the point at issue and is dragged only as a make-weight. There is no analogy whatever between the cause, progress and effects of the French revolution and our recent revolution. The French revolution has produced good effects—more than enough to counterbalance its evils—but it took time to develop them. We must wait for time to make the good effects of ours more patent. It is something of "improvement," I opine, to make American practice conform to American theory. America is the custodian, and the apostle of liberty.

Is it no "improvement" that she is now free to practice what her political gospel of humanity preaches? What would be thought of the Evangelists and Apostles of Christianity preaching the gospel, and yet preaching the rites and worship of the old pagan mythology? Just the same that has been thought of our country preaching the doctrines of the Declaration of Independence and practicing slavery. Is it no improvement that our practice and theory have been reconciled?

The Herald demurs to our saying that the sword which Gen. Lee surrendered was the sceptre of the "old partisan Democracy." The strength and force of the saying he seeks to parry by a quibble unworthy of Mr. Brown's comprehensive experience and perception. Whether Gen. Lee ever voted a Democratic ticket makes no difference. He fought the battle of the Democracy and was conquered. Democracy, in the South, meant slavery and secession—in the North office and gain. Mr. Brown will hardly deny that the sword which Gen. Lee surrendered was the sceptre of slavery and secession, and of the power and prestige of the Northern Democracy.

A STRANGER DEMOCRAT.

THE MAD ITCH.—Western journals tell of the ravages of a disease which, it is agreed, results from feeding cattle or sheep together with hogs on green corn fodder, or on corn of late planting cut up very green. The hogs chewing the stocks and thus extracting all the saccharine juices, drop the pith in wads, which is picked up by the cattle and sheep and eaten. This innutricious and indigestible substance, having been received into the stomach, causes a violent inflammation, which results in death in from twelve to twenty-four hours. The first symptoms of the presence is a peculiar twitching of the muscles of the lower jaw and lip, followed in a short time by a terrible itching, which the animal attempts to relieve by rubbing its lower jaw and throat against any object it can reach, until it frequently rubs all the hair and skin from these parts; rubbing, bellowing and moaning until death relieves it of its terrible misery.

Protest Against Chinese Labor.

We, the citizens of Oswego and surrounding country, having heard the rumor that the Oregon Iron Company are about to force upon this community a large horde of Chinese laborers, to carry on their works, therefore,

We, the undersigned, assembled in mass meeting, as men considering our own interest, present and future, do protest as follows against the introduction of Chinese in our midst, either by companies or individuals:

Resolved, That judging from our experience in other localities, the fact has been demonstrated that the introduction of Chinese, as laborers or residents, has proved a scathing blight upon every city, town or hamlet where they have been introduced upon this coast.

Resolved, That we do not believe Chinese labor to be as profitable to the employer as white labor, and wholly unprofitable to merchant, mechanic, or laborer,—a bane upon society and a nuisance totally intolerable.

Resolved, That while we not wish to dictate to companies or individuals, as to the investment of capital; yet we cannot regard the introduction of Chinese labor in our midst with the least toleration.

Resolved, That while we entertain a high regard for the Oregon Iron Company, and deem the work they have done here worthy of the men engaged in the enterprise; yet we think they should remember that it is the Anglo Saxon race, and not the Mongolian, that make a market for their iron.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the President of the Oregon Iron Company, and also be published in the OREGONIAN and Herald.

SAN FRANCISCO ASSAYING
AND REFINING WORKS.
No. 416 Montgomery Street,
(Successors to Kellogg, Hewston & Company.)
CAPITAL STOCK, $1,000,000!
Directors:
JOHN PARROTT, CHAS. N. McLANE,
WM. C. RALSTON, A. HAYWARD,
LOUIS A. CARNETT.
LOUIS A. CARNETT..........President and Manager.
JOHN HEWSTON, JR......Chemist and Superintendent.

THIS COMPANY, HAVING GREATLY enlarged their Refining Works, and introduced many other important improvements, are pleased to announce that they feel warranted in again reducing materially their terms of doing business.

THE TARIFF OF CHARGES

Which they now submit to the public—considered with reference to the cost of material and labor—is lower than in any other part of the world and secures to the mining interest of this coast an important increase in both the minting and commercial value of bullion.

Their charges hereafter will be as follows:

FOR ASSAYING DEPOSITS FOR UNPARTED GOLD BARS.

One-eighth of one per cent. (heretofore a quarter) for all amounts over $1,600, and two dollars for any smaller sum. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

FOR ASSAYING DEPOSITS FOR UNPARTED SILVER BARS.

Two dollars for the gold contained, up to $1,600, and one-eighth of one per cent, for all amounts over that sum, and one per cent. on the silver contained. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

FOR REFINING DEPOSITS MADE FOR COIN OR FINE BARS.

On bullion under 600 parts gold, 2 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 600½@800 parts gold, 4 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 6 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 750½@940½ parts gold, 8 cents per ounce.
Above 950 the only charge will be for coinage. But there will be no charge for refining less than two dollars.

FOR COINING GOLD.

This charge will be the same as at the Mint—a half of one per cent.—and which is paid by us to that institution. But there will be no charge in future for making fine gold or silver bars from bullion refined by us.

RETURNS IN COIN IN FORTY-EIGHT HOURS.

Silver contained in deposits for coin will be accounted for at the same rate customary at the Mint.

Gold bars of other Assayers, in good standing, will be cashed by us at the highest market rates.

Dust and bullion can be forwarded to us from any part of the country, and returns made through Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express.

CHARGES AT U. S. BRANCH MINT.

For the convenience of those not familiar with the terms of the Mint, we subjoin the tariff of charges now in force at that institution:

For refining bullion under 300 parts gold, 3 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 5 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 8 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 750½@830 parts gold, 11 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 830½@940½ parts gold, 14 cents per ounce.

The charge for coinage is half of one per cent., and the charge for making fine silver bars, the same.

Comparing the net value of deposits for coinage, with the proceeds of unparted gold bars sold in the market—assuming that the bars have cost ½ of one per cent.—they must be sold at the following par rates to equal the return which would have been made had they been deposited for coinage:

850 par to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 14 cents.
845 par to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 14 cents.
865 par to equal San Francisco A. & R. Works return, at refining charge of 8 cents. mh1d2p3m

A VALUABLE INVENTION.

THE UNDERSIGNED CALLS THE ATTENTION of smokers to the celebrated
PATENT DOUBLE-TUBE PIPES

Which he is now importing, and which are recommended to all smokers. Its peculiar merit consists in the use of TWO TUBES, the one for the smoke alone and the other for the passage of the saliva and the nicotine to the cup at the bottom, whence it is discharged. The smoke being thus kept clear of contact with the saliva, is always delicious and pure in its odor, and the collected matter which renders all other pipes offensive being entirely removed, the pipe will always continue sweet and agreeable. It gives to the smoke the pure exhalation of the tobacco, free from its noxious nicotine; it possesses merits never before obtained in pipes.

A leading eastern journal says of this pipe: "Its merits are incontestably proved by the fact that it is permanently superseding all others in use."

Another great advantage in this pipe is that the smoker can easily take it to pieces. If the draught becomes obstructed you can withdraw the stem and re-open the upper tube of the bowl without emptying it of tobacco.

[illegible] LABORS.—Previous to the departure of Rev. Mr. Earle from this city, the following "Plan for united Christian labors proposed by several churches in Portland" was agreed upon. We find the "Plan" printed on a small folio sheet which is circulated generally about the city:

"We believe that God appoints His people to be His [illegible], and that He invariably uses their true and simple testimony through the Holy Spirit to save souls and extend the Redeemer's kingdom on earth. Isa. 43:9 and 12—'Ye are my witnesses.' Acts 1:8—'And ye shall be witnesses unto me, both in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost parts of the earth.' Heb. 2:4—'God also bearing witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to His own will.' Heb. 10:15—'Whereof the Holy Ghost is also a witness to us.' Rev. 11:3—'And I will give power unto my two witnesses.'

"We believe that the Divine and the most effective argument for the Gospel is the narrative of a person's Christian experience. The Psalms and the writings of the Apostles are largely made up of such experiences. Ps. 66:16—'Come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare what he hath done for my soul.' Acts 22—Paul's defence before the Jews in the temple, was his religious experience, and it proved to be unanswerable. A young convert said to some friends who came to discuss the subject: 'Gentlemen, I cannot answer your objections, but I can relate my experience.' He did so, and they said no more. The best and final answer of the man born blind, whose sight was restored by Jesus, was this: 'One thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.'—John 9:25.

"In view of these Divine principles and facts, and in order more fully and effectually to give our testimony of the grace of God through Christ in us, we hereby agree and determine to have—

"1st. A Ministerial Union of all the pastors of the city and vicinity, every Monday morning at 10 o'clock, at the homes of the city pastors in rotation, to recount briefly our testimony, given the previous Sabbath, its apparent effects, and the obstacles, and to seek by prayer for more light in the path of duty.

"2d. A union meeting for prayer and conference of all the ministers, church officers, members and congregations of the city and vicinity, on Tuesday evening of every week at the churches of the city in rotation, to be conducted by the pastors in rotation; the first Tuesday of every month to be observed as a day of fasting and prayer. The time of the meeting will usually be devoted [illegible] testimony for Jesus and to prayer and praise.

"3d. A daily union prayer meeting from 12 o'clock M. to 1 o'clock P. M., a month in each city church in rotation, the leaders to be appointed by the pastors for a week each in turn, the subjects for each day being the same as previous to the arrival of Rev. Mr. Earle, viz.: Monday, for Christians; Tuesday, for all awakened souls; Wednesday, for all children, schools, and teachers; Thursday, for the unawakened; Friday, for our our city, that its [illegible] of temptation and corruption may be removed or [illegible]; Saturday, for a blessing upon ministers and the [illegible] of the Sabbath.

"4th. Every Sabbath School and Bible Class teacher, [illegible] person willing to act as such, either in the family or the church, is to meet his or her class at least [illegible] week, for mutual prayer and conference; every [illegible] and pupil, young and old, who is willing to [illegible], if only so much as "God be merciful to [illegible]," aiming at the conversion and active Christian [illegible] of every member of the class, however young [illegible] of every color, race, section, Jew or Gentile, Protestant or Catholic, bond or free, learned or ignorant, virtuous or vile; every one feeling bound to bring some [illegible] or her class, and to watch over and for each [illegible] in all patience and love.

"5th. At eight o'clock every morning every member [illegible] who is willing, to retire alone, or stop in [illegible] and spend a few moments in prayer.

"6th. To labor for and expect the complete answer to [illegible], until our city and community are converted to Christ."

[illegible] INDIGNATION MEETING.—Yesterday morning [illegible] Iron Company sent up eighteen Chinamen to work in their iron mine at Oswego. The white [illegible] hearing of the intention to send up a lot of [illegible], held an indignation meeting Monday evening, [illegible] resolutions were passed and the matter generally [illegible]. We learn that there was some disposition [illegible] by violence, the introduction of the Chinamen, [illegible] were landed from the Alert and sent to the mine [illegible] disturbance. The too great cost of white labor [illegible] to be the reason for the employment of Chinamen. [illegible] Francisco press has, with few exceptions, defended the employment of Chinese laborers on the public [illegible] and in the factories, on the ground that they were [illegible] cheap laborers and that the rates asked by white [illegible] were so high as to put competition with eastern manufacturers entirely beyond all possibility. They say that [illegible] factories must have cheap labor or be crushed out of [illegible] by the "pauper labor" in the factories of the [illegible] States and England. How true that is, or whether such a state of things exists in Oregon, we have [illegible] the means of knowing fully. We know that the [illegible] of labor, kept up by our proximity to the mines, has always been a great obstacle in the way of introducing manufacturing establishments and it may be true [illegible] for aught we know, that manufacturers are under [illegible] necessity of either employing cheaper labor or suspending operations.

[illegible] T. A.—A friend at Salem who is responsible for [illegible] he says, writes as follows in relation to the item [illegible] appeared in Saturday morning's OREGONIAN, containing [illegible] list of officers of Oregon Branch No. 1, of the [illegible] Band of Temperance Advancers: "In Saturday's OREGONIAN I see a notice of the I. B. T. A., and [illegible] list of officers. That is a humbug, gotten up by ——, [illegible] was expelled from the lodge of Good Templars [illegible]. He is an addle-brained boy. The persons [illegible] were thus used knew nothing of it and feel [illegible] chagrined to see their names paraded in connection with a thing which has been the object of the [illegible] ridicule in Salem. It is a scandal on Good Templars, and I, for one, feeling an interest in the good [illegible] desire the public to know that no such society exists [illegible] in the brain of an infatuated and disappointed [illegible]."

A PACKET LINE.—Intelligence was, yesterday, received [illegible] of an arrangement made in San Francisco, [illegible] to start a packet line of vessels between that city [illegible]. The line will consist, as is supposed, of [illegible], Live Yankee, Sam. Merritt, and perhaps [illegible] small vessels. The Scranton is loading now and will [illegible] dispatch for Portland. The Sam. Merritt, we hear from other parties, is already loaded with [illegible] freight for Fort Vancouver depot, and agricultural [illegible] for Knapp, Burrell & Co. She is expected immediately. Aldrich, Merrill & Co. are the San Francisco agents of the forthcoming packet line. Small freights which can take the ordinary chances of delay incident to sailing vessels, this line will offer [illegible] inducements. Nothing definite has yet been [illegible] as to rates of freighting, but it is understood they [illegible] be materially lower than by steamer.

HON. J. H. MITCHELL.—The Unionist of Monday, the [illegible] has the following complimentary notice of the lecture delivered in Salem last week by Hon. J. H. Mitchell, of this city: "The Hon. J. H. Mitchell, of Portland, delivered a lecture before the Hesperian Society of this city on Wednesday evening. The subject was the Nationality of the United States. The lecture evinced a profound study of the ideas and men both in Europe and America, [illegible] contributed to the formation of our form of government. The lecture was well received by the Society, and [illegible] doubtless stimulate many of these young Westerners [illegible] the English to the classic Hesperian) to give [illegible] to the records of the past a thorough and patient [illegible]."

[illegible] CONVENTION AT VANCOUVER.—The Union Convention for Clarke county, W. T., was held at Vancouver [illegible], resulting in the election of the following [illegible] as delegates to the Union Territorial Convention: [illegible] B. D. Maxson, R. T. Lockwood, and J. M. [illegible]. The following nominations for the county [illegible] were made: For the Council, H. G. Struve, editor of the [illegible]; for Representatives, G. W. Jones, H. Cochran [illegible] Mr. Henry; for Probate Judge, L. Douthitt; for [illegible], Levy Farnsworth; Sheriff, G. W. Durgan; [illegible], —— Scheele. We were unable to learn the [illegible] of other nominees.

WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS.—Before Judge Shattuck, sitting in Chambers, Monday, April 8th, John R. McBride vs. Lydia McBride and Betsey Sunderland; writ of habeas corpus to obtain custody of infant child, Walter McBride. The court adjudged that the mother, Lydia McBride, be allowed the custody of the child, and that the father, John R. McBride, have the privilege of visiting the child at reasonable intervals. This was the third [illegible] before Judge Shattuck for the custody of the child.

[illegible] WORK.—The hack belonging to Taylor's stable [illegible] of Morrison and Second streets, has lately been overhauled and repaired at the shop of W. E. Cooper & Co. If any one doubts the ability of this shop to turn out fine work, he will get rid of such doubts by examining the hack in question. The outside finishing, [illegible], &c., and the upholstery is equal to the work of [illegible] shop, east or west. The hack was of eastern manufacture, [illegible] but never presented a finer and more workmanlike [illegible] appearance than now.

[illegible] OREGON CITY.—From an acquaintance who came [illegible] yesterday from Oregon City, we learn that the case of [illegible] vs. Oregon City, judgment in which was rendered by Judge Shattuck, has been decided in favor of the city. In this suit the plaintiff alleged fraud in the [illegible] of his property, and the question was as to the right of the city to collect the taxes levied thereon, [illegible] with the amount.

[illegible].—We are informed that about two hundred [illegible] made profession of religion during the last two [illegible], under the preaching of the Rev. Mr. Earle. On [illegible] night, at the last of the series of meetings, one [illegible] and ninety persons arose and gave their testimony as to the efficacy of prayer. Rev. Mr. Earle left yesterday morning for Oregon City and Salem.

FOR THE INSANE ASYLUM.—Sheriff Liggett of Polk county, arrived in this city yesterday, by the Alert, in charge of an insane woman—a Mrs. Eldridge—who was sent from Polk county to the State Insane Asylum. She has, we learn, been subject to temporary fits of insanity for some years, but the disease has of late developed itself with symptoms of permanence.

[illegible] COURT.—Business before his honor, Judge [illegible] yesterday, very light. The case of Thomas [illegible], arrested for disturbing the congregation on [illegible] evening, at the Court House, was continued until [illegible] day. Thomas Stone, for drunken and disorderly [illegible], was sent up for twenty-four hours.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—A few days ago some person removed a wagon from Salmon street, between First and [illegible], without leave of the owner, and has not returned it. The owner of this wagon is in urgent need of it, and the [illegible] who took it away would do well to return it before the owner chooses to consider this loose method [illegible] larceny, and takes action accordingly.

[illegible] Our worthy friend and popular County [illegible] informs us that he issued two marriage [illegible] Monday, April 8th.

WILLAMETTE FREIGHTS.—The steamer Alert yesterday brought down from Oregon City 651 sks bacon, 1 bale woolen goods, 33 hf bbls dried apples, 4 pkgs woolen socks, 19 boxes eggs, 325 boxes apples, 320 sks wheat, 15 sks dried fruit, 2 bales paper, 100 sks feed, 200 sks flour.

AUCTION SALE TO-DAY.—Mr. A. B. Richardson will offer at auction to-day, at 10 A. M., several lots, averaging from large to small, of groceries, consisting of sugars, teas candles, etc., etc., and "etcetry."

UNION MEETINGS.—The first of the series of union meetings agreed upon by the different congregations of this city, will be held at the M. E. Church, on Taylor street, on Tuesday evening next.

A POOR MAN'S HARVEST.—At Barman Bros., they are selling Clothing and Gents Furnishing Goods at such low prices as must suit every mother's son. The steamer Ajax has arrived and Barman Bros. will open, to-day, a fine assortment of Spring suits which are the latest in style and best in quality. Please call on Barman Bros. and get their figures, which you will find to be exceeding low.

As everybody are enquiring how Wm. Currier & Co. can sell a fine Cassimere suit of clothes for $10, we will state that they purchased their large and varied stock for cash; that they can, do, and will sell all kinds of clothing for less money than any other house in Portland.

CHINOOK SALMON.—A fresh lot received last evening at the Union Fish Market, Washington Street.

MRS. N. M. PHYFE, of 89 West 48th street, New York, states that "the GROVER & BAKER MACHINES are easier to learn on, the work is more durable, the tucking is more elastic, they are easier to run, and cause a great saving of time and money. I can sew very thin goods or very thick goods. I have embroidered one thickness of linen, and from that changed to embroidering slippers without changing the machine at all." Wm. Currier & Co., agents, 103 Front street, Portland.

MEALS AT ALL HOURS.—You can get a meal at any time of day at the LAFAYETTE RESTAURANT, under Oro Fino Hall, First street, below Stark.

FAMILY DYE COLORS.—After a careful and continuous use of the Family Dye Colors of Howe & Stevens for five years, the public with one voice have declared enthusiastically in their favor. It would be strange if they did not, for they are the only dyes in the market people will buy. Firm, beautiful, easily used, safe—what wonder they are so popular!—Sold by Smith & Davis.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

Is a certain cure for diseases of the
BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL, DROPSY, ORGANIC WEAKNESS, FEMALE COMPLAINTS, GENERAL DEBILITY, and all diseases of the
URINARY ORGANS,
whether existing in
MALE OR FEMALE,
from whatever cause originating and no matter of
HOW LONG STANDING.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a diuretic. If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the HEALTH AND HAPPINESS, and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.
HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU,
Established upwards of 18 years; prepared by
H. T. HELMBOLD, Druggist,
594 Broadway, New York, and mh25d1m 104 South 10th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

The Best Remedy for Purifying the Blood, Strengthening the Nerves, Restoring the Lost Appetite, is FRESE'S HAMBURG TEA.

It is the best preservative against almost any sickness, if used timely. Composed of herbs only, it can be safely given to infants. Full directions in English, French, Spanish and German, with every package. TRY IT! For sale at all the wholesale and retail drug stores and groceries. EMIL FRESE, Wholesale Druggist,

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.

THE GREAT FAMILY MEDICINE OF THE AGE!

Pain Killer taken internally, should be adulterated with milk or water, and sweetened with sugar if desired, or made into a syrup with molasses. For a cough, a few drops on sugar eaten will be more effective than anything else. For sore throat, gargle the throat with a mixture of Pain Killer and water, and relief is immediate and the cure positive.

It should not be forgotten that the Pain Killer is equally as good to take internally as to use externally. Each bottle is wrapped with full directions for its use. Dyspepsia can be and is cured every day by the use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer. This is the most wonderful and valuable medicine ever known for this disease. Its action upon the system is entirely different from any other preparation known. The patient, while taking this medicine, may eat anything the appetite craves. Sold by all medicine dealers. mh20dawlm

THE GLORY OF MAN IS STRENGTH.—Therefore the nervous and debilitated should immediately use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU.

Bronchitis or Chronic Sore Throat.—It is attended with irritation of the bronchial tubes, which convey the air we breathe into the lungs. The irritation produces sore throat, hoarseness, coughing, and sometimes spitting of matter streaked with blood. If it is neglected it will extend down to the lungs, and settles into confirmed consumption. ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will be found a most valuable remedy for curing this disease, and prevent its running into the consumption. For sale by dealers in family medicine generally. ta20

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU and IMPROVED ROSE WASH cures secret and delicate disorders in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience and no exposure. It is pleasant in taste and odor, immediate in its action, and free from all injurious properties.

If you must take medicines then take AYER'S, which are by far the most effectual remedies to be had any where.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU gives health and vigor to the frame and bloom to the pallid cheek. Debility is accompanied by many alarming symptoms, and if no treatment is submitted to, consumption, insanity, or epileptic fits ensue.

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities, CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts. The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he learns increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, realizing upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud is injurious to the interests of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

The University HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION

THE LANDS OF THE ABOVE-NAMED ASSOCIATION are situated in San Francisco and are eligibly and most desirably located, adjoining the grounds purchased by the Presbyterian University Society, on which College buildings are to be at once erected. The site is less than thirty minutes ride from Montgomery street; lying just west or back of the lands of the South San Francisco Homestead and Railroad Association and the Bay View Park, almost within a stone's throw of ST. MARY'S COLLEGE.

The tract will require little or no grading, there being scarcely a single lot on which it would not be safe to build without any change of grade. It commands a Beautiful View of the Bay,

And its opposite shore, and has a soil of extreme richness. So great are the natural attractions of the spot that very many of the wealthy citizens of San Francisco have already purchased whole blocks in the same tract, and design building residences thereon.

The Rev. E. Thomas, D. D.,

Is President of the Association; Lester L. Robinson, formerly Vice President of the Sacramento Railroad Company, is the Treasurer, and Thomas B. Lewis, formerly of Portland, Secretary.

Four lots, 25x120 feet each, constitute a share, costing $315—payable in monthly installments of $10 each, after the first payment of $10 has been made.

Maps and books giving full information of the workings of the Association can be obtained at the store of J. L. PARRISH & CO.

It is an easy and a cheap way for young men to procure property which will in a few years make them independent.

Song.

FROM WHITTIER'S "TENT ON THE BEACH."

The harp at Nature's advent strung
Has never ceased to play;
The song the star of morning sung
Has never died away.

And prayer is made, and praise is given,
By all things near and far;
The ocean looketh up to heaven,
And mirrors every star.

Its waves are kneeling on the strand,
As kneels the human knee,
Their white locks bowing to the sand,
The priesthood of the sea!

They pour their glittering treasures forth,
Their gifts of pearl they bring,
And all the listening hills of earth
Take up the songs they sing.

The green earth sends her incense up,
From many a mountain shrine,
From folded leaf and dewy cup
She pours her sacred wine.

The mists above the morning rills
Rise white as wings of prayer,
The altar curtains of the hills
Are sunset's purple air.

The winds with hymns of praise are loud,
Or low with sobs of pain,
The thunder-organ of the cloud,
The dropping tears of rain.

With drooping head and branches crossed
The twilight forest grieves,
Or speaks with tongues of Pentecost
From all its sunlit leaves.

The blue sky is the temple's arch
Its transept earth and air,
The music of its starry march
The chorus of a prayer.

So Nature keeps the reverent frame
With which her eyes began,
And all her signs and voices shame
The prayerless heart of man.

Mark Twain in New York.

THE MODEL ARTISTS.

When I was here in '53, a model artist show had an ephemeral existance in Chatham street, and then everybody growled about it, and the police broke it up; at the same period "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was in full blast in the same street, and had already run one hundred and fifty nights. Everybody went there in elegant toilettes and wept over Tom's griefs. But now, things are changed. The model artists play nightly to admiring multitudes at famous Niblo's Garden, in Broadway—have played one hundred and fifty nights and will play one hundred and fifty more, no doubt—and Uncle Tom draws [illegible] self possessed groups of negroes and children at Barnum's Museum. I fear me I shall have to start a moral missionary society here. Do you suppose those friends of mine in San Francisco were jesting, when they warned me to be very choice in my language, if I ever lectured here, lest I might offend?

In '53 they called that horrid, immoral show I [illegible] thing of, the "Model Artists," and people wouldn't go to see it. But now they call that sort of thing a "Grand Spectacular Drama," and everybody goes. It is all in a name. And it is as spectacular as anything I ever saw without going right into the earth with outraged modesty. It is the wickedest show you can think of. You see there is small harm in exhibiting a lot of painted old harlots, swathed in gauze, like the original model artistes, for no man careth for them but to laugh and jeer at them. The show itself, in such a case, would be nothing worse than disgusting. But I warn you that when they put beautiful clipper built girls on the stage in this new fashion, with only just barely enough on to be tantalizing, it is a shrewd invention of the devil. It lays a heavier siege to the morals than all the legitimate model artistes you can bring into action.

The [illegible] of this new exhibition that so touches the [illegible] sensibilities, is the "Black Crook" [illegible] effects—the waterfalls, cascades, fountains, [illegible], fairies, devils, hells, heavens, angels—[illegible] gorgeous beyond anything ever witnessed in America, perhaps, and those things attract the women and the girls. Then the endless ballets and splendid tableaux, with seventy beauties in dazzling half costumes; and displays of all possible compromises between naked[illegible] and [illegible] capture the men and boys—and the show has taken in twenty-four hundred dollars a night, (seven nights and a matinee a week) for five months, and sometimes twenty-seven hundred dollars. It is claimed that a multitude equal to the entire population of the State of California, Ohio [illegible] included, have visited this play. The Herald newspaper pitched into it, and a parson preached a sermon against it; this was sufficient to advertise it all over the continent, and so the proprietor's fortune was made. The scenery and the legs are everything, the actors who do the talking are the wretchedest sticks on the boards. But the fairy scenes—they fetch the boys! Beautiful bare-legged girls [illegible] in flower baskets, others stretched in groups on great sea shells, others clustered around columns, others in all possible attitudes; nothing but a wilderness of girls—stacked pile on pile away aloft to the dome of the theatre, diminishing in size and clothing, till the last row, mere children, dangle high up from [illegible], resplendent with columns, scrolls, and vast ornamental work, wrought in gold, and brilliant only in a camisa. The whole [illegible] is in colors—all lit up with gorgeous [illegible] figures, and witnessed through a great [illegible] that counterfeits a soft silver mist! It is the wonders of the Arabian Nights realised. The girls dance in ballet, dressed with a [illegible] that would make a parasol blush. And they prance around and expose themselves in a way that is scandalous to me. Moreover, they come piling on the stage in platoons and battalions in most princely attire I grant you, but with more tights in view than anything else. They change their clothes every fifteen minutes for four hours, and their dresses become more beautiful and more rascally all the time.

ALL DRAMADOM AFFECTED.

I have been sitting here blushing so long that I may as well finish the subject, now. The Worrell Sisters, (at the Broadway,) are playing a piece also, which enables them to undress to [illegible] taste However, they do not take off much, by any means, and so they cannot hope [illegible].

But our Hattie Hinckley, late of San Francisco, is in the "Black Crook." She is playing a fairy piece, also, and in the last act she makes a lovely statue of herself, and stands aloft before the audience, and dressed about like the [illegible]. She looks very beautiful—but Heaven and her assistants! She has got about thirty [illegible] painted slab sided, lantern jawed old [illegible] with her who are so mortal homely that [illegible] tastes good to them. And to see those [illegible], blear eyed, leathery old scallywags come out and hop around in melancholy dance, with their [illegible], ragged, nine inch dress-tails flapping in the [illegible]. Oh, it is worth going miles to see! And when one of them finishes her poor little shindig and makes her wind up stamp in the orthodox way, sticking out a slipper like a horse trough, with a criminal attempt at grace, I want to snatch a double barrelled shot-gun and go after the whole [illegible].

Edwin Booth and the legitimate drama still [illegible] immense houses, but the signs of the times convince me that he will have to make a little change by and by and peel some women. Nothing else can chain the popular taste, the way things are going now.

THE BEWITCHING NEW FASHIONS.

Who shall describe the exquisite taste and beauty of the new style of ladies' walking dresses? Taken as a class, women can contrive more outlandish and ugly costumes than one would think possible without the gift of inspiration. But this time they have been felicitous in inventions The eternal waterfall still remains, of course, but in a modified form; every change it has undergone was for the better. First it represented a bladder of scotch snuff; next it hung down the woman's back like a canvas covered ham, afterwards it contracted, and counterfeited a turnip on the back of the head; now it sticks straight out behind, and looks like a wire muzzle on a greyhound. Nestling in the midst of this long stretch of head and hair reposes the little batter-cake of a bonnet, like a jockey saddle on a race-horse. You will readily perceive that this looks very unique, and pretty, and coquettish. But the glory of the costume is the robe—the dress. No furbelow, no flounces, no biases, no ruffles, no gores, no flutter wheels, no hoops to speak of—nothing but a rich, plain, narrow black dress, terminating just below the knees in long saw teeth, (points downward) and under it a flaming red skirt enough to put your eyes out, that reaches down to the ankle bone, and exposes the restless little feet Charming, fascinating, seductive, bewitching! To see a lovely girl of seventeen, with her saddle on her head, and her muzzle on behind, and her veil just covering the end of her nose, come tripping along in her hoopless, red bottomed dress, like a charm on fire, is enough to set a man wild. I must drop this subject—I can't stand it.

It is reported that if the Massachusetts Legislature concludes to dispose of the old State House at Boston, the new two million capital hotel company will purchase it and make it over into one of the most magnificent establishments ever thought of, with riding school, opera house, Turkish baths, and other luxuries all beneath the same roof.

A postage stamp, tied with a cobweb, is the last bonnet in Paris.

Suicides—Some Remarkable Instances.

Charles Nodier, the eminent French essayist, had conceived among the numerous other schemes of his fertile brain, the project of writing "biographies of illustrious suicides." The idea was never fulfilled, and modern literature has lost one of the most absorbing and instructive ideas which has been projected Like the great History of Human Error, of the amiable and learned Caxton, immortalized by Sir Bulwer Lytton, the work remains a great perhaps But while the literature of biography has not failed to commemorate the circumstances of every conspicuous suicide, medical science has added several monographs to the subject.

The mere statistics of suicides are more startling than any romance. In England as far back as 1700, the number by suicide reached one thousand per year, and it is now considerably more than doubled. This was independently of those whose bodies were never brought before the Coroner at all, or which were sheltered from notoriety by a verdict of accidental death. In France, according to Zimmermann, the number of suicides in the last century was three times greater than the number of murders and other homicides. The very accurate census reports of the French Empire show an average of four thousand suicides per year in that country alone, in the last decade.

Among the noted names of ancient times we find several philosophers, orators, and statesmen who committed suicides. Demosthenes drank poison in the Temple of Neptune, when that sanctuary was invaded by his enemies, to save himself from falling into the hands of the tyrant Antipater. Mithridates, the proud king of Pontus, his rebellious subjects having torn the crown from his head, and invested his son with it (the insignia of empire) withdrew himself into his apartments, distributed poison to his wives and daughters, and swallowed a powerful potion himself, this failing, he had recourse to his sword. His two sisters, Roxada and Satira, followed his example, as did also two of his wives. Cato, "the ablest Roman of them all," closely besieged in Utica by Cæsar, gave a parting banquet to his friends and the magistrates of the city, then retired to his chamber where he read Plato on the Immortality of the Soul till midnight, when he ordered a slave to bring him his sword. Closely examining the point, he laid it at the head of his bed, laid down, and slept soundly till dawn. Then, according to Plutarch, "at the hour the birds began to sing," Cato awoke, and seizing his sword, stabbed himself in the breast, and died almost immediately. Portia, the wife of Brutus, killed herself by swallowing live coals. Brutus fell upon his sword soon after the disastrous day of Phillippi.

Antony, the victor of Phillippi, afterward hard pressed by the victorious legions of Octavius, and in despair at the rumored death and treachery of Cleopatra, stabbed himself to the heart, and was carried dying to the couch of the Egyptian queen, where he died in Cleopatra's arms, asking for a glass of wine with his last breath. Soon after, the brilliant queen herself, having failed to captivate Octavius with all her charms, submitted her bosom to the poison of an asp, threw herself upon her couch of gold, and died, steeped in luxury to the last.

The noble suicide of the virtuous Lucretia is the most pathetic story in the Roman annals Seneca, the moralist, commends both Cato and Lucretia for dying and so ending their miseries; and even Eusebius, the historian of the Christian church, justifies the Roman lady's suicide to avoid the embraces of Tarquin. Hannibal, the greatest of the heroes of antiquity, when defeated by the greater forces of the Romans, covered with disaster, fleeting to the asylum of Eumenes, king of Pergamus, was not suffered to escape the vengeance of Rome, which sent an embassy to demand the head of the illustrious exile. Hannibal attempted to escape, but finding every door guarded, he took an active poison, which he always carried upon his person, and expired, with the imperishable hatred of the Roman name burning in his dying breast.

The Emperor Nero, being driven from his palace by the Pretorians, took refuge in a slave's hut, where he ran himself through with a sword, upon the approach of a troop of cavalry. Themistocles, to choose between sending his powerful aid to the king of Persia, and thus contributing to the ruin of Greece, and thus refusing that aid to one that had loaded him with benefits, for the sake of an ungrateful country, which had banished her noblest son, relieved himself from the painful dilemma by a firm and deliberate act of suicide. He assembled all his friends, offered a sacrifice to Jupiter, and drank a full goblet of bull's blood, which coagulated in his veins, and soon caused his death.

Of the eminent persons of modern times who have sought death unbidden, we read of Castlereagh, Romilly, Whitbread, Condorcet, Olive, Chatterton and Haydon. Sir Samuel Romilly, that purest of philanthropists, who had obtained the meridian of an honorable career of intellectual labor and had left himself to minister to others, had not fortitude to bear his own. The loss of a beloved wife unhinged his mind, and in an hour of despondent melancholy he opened the jugular vein with a razor, and was found by his servant weltering in his blood. The same mode of suicide was chosen by the eminent British minister, Lord Castlereagh, a man who, intrusted with the duty of preserving the balance of power among the nations of Europe, yet had not equanimity enough to preserve his spirit from the madness of suicide. Becoming desperately unpopular in England from his open and bitter championship of the meanest despotism, Castlereagh brought upon his head the indignation of all the liberals in Europe, and Byron dipped his pen in gall to denounce him.

The minister was endowed with one of those cold and resolute tempers which brave unpopularity so long as they continued to be favored with the smiles of kings. Nevertheless he succumbed at last to the fierce onslaughts which were made upon him from all sides, and to the embarrassments which were accumulating around him. On the 12th of August, 1822, immediately after breakfast, Castlereagh entered his cabinet and cut the carotid artery with a razor. Dr. Bankhead accidentally entered the room at the moment. "Let me fall upon your arm—all is finished," said the minister, and he expired.

Of Condorcet, the great philosopher and statesman of the French revolution, who swallowed poison in 1794, of Roland, the republican and Girondist, who, seven days after his noble wife had perished on the scaffold, let out his own life by the sword, of Chatterton, "the marvelous boy, who perished in his pride;" and of Haydon, the gifted artist and man of genius, whose proud and sensitive nature could not brook the terrors of debt, neglect and penury, and who also managed to "shoot the gulf" by the double means of the razor and the pistol ball, we have not left ourselves room to speak.

FALL OF A PORTION OF TABLE ROCK.—On the 11th of February, about midday, a large portion of Table Rock at Niagara Falls, estimated at several thousand tons, broke loose from the river bank, falling to the beach or river side, with a tremendous crash, fortunately no one being on the rock at the time and no one being killed or injured by the fall of it. The remaining portion of the Table Rock has every appearance of insecurity. Large fissures separating the rock from the main river bank are plainly to be seen.

The St. Catherine's Journal of Wednesday evening gives some further particulars of the fall of Table Rock as follows:

It will be remembered that some years since a very large section of this rock, which had been hanging in a very threatening position for some time, broke off with a loud noise, and tumbled down the precipice into the bosom of the Niagara, and that, only a few years since, another large portion of this once famous rock went the way of all rocks about the falls.

It is probable that the heavy storms and sudden and violent thaws of the past month or six weeks had loosened the balance of the rocks, and thus caused its disappearance The loss of this favorite resort for tourists to the falls will be severely felt, at least on this side of the river, as very many were induced to visit the north shore for the sole purpose of seeing it Colonel Peacock, who commanded the wing of our army during the Fenian raid in June last, and also moved his column just fast enough to miss "the boys in green," was on the Table Rock only a few minutes before the last of it fell

KAMSCHATKA.—A correspondent of the London (C. W.) Free Press, with the Russian-American Overland Telegraph Company, writes of the above

This is a most healthy country. There are salmon, flounders, rock cod and seals in the bay Behring's and Clarke's monuments are objects of interest. There are little villages every ten miles or so all the way up the peninsula There are regular fur traders who buy all the furs that come in from the up country. The towering volcanoes on each side of the entrance of the bay are fine objects, with the clouds of steam on their summits, they are from 11,000 to 12,000 feet high. The dogs look like wolves. The company have about 500 of them, which will be used in the winter getting poles, etc. The agent says we will spend a delightful winter The thermometer is 13 to 20 degrees in winter, not so cold as in Canada. The population is about 600—Russians, Cossacks and natives, and a half dozen Americans. The houses are of logs, with iron roofs and double windows, with a large furnace for heating. The most of the inhabitants are indolent, and do not care for more than making a living. There is plenty of good land, covered with very tall native grass. I never saw better food for cattle, but it is neglected. The people can make an easier living by fishing. They feed their dogs on salmon, which they devour like wolves.

In the early days of Biddeford, Maine, a lady sent a bell to that place from Biddeford, England, which arrived in Boston, where it remained a long time, and was finally sold to pay its freight and storage. Efforts were made years ago to purchase it for Biddeford, but it could not then be bought The attempt is again about to be made. It is one of the finest toned bells in Boston

Two years ago there were running between Buffalo, Cleveland, Toledo and Detroit a number of the finest side wheel steamers in the world At the present time not one of them is in existence The railroads have superseded them

ADMINISTRATRIX' SALE OF REAL ESTATE OF W H Frush, deceased.—In pursuance of an order of the County Court of Multnomah county, State of Oregon, made and entered on the ninth (9th) day of January, A D 1867, the undersigned, administratrix of the estate of W H Frush, deceased, will, at the court house door, county and State aforesaid, on the 29th day of April, A. D. 1867, between the hours of 9 o'clock A M and 4 o'clock P M, of said day, expose to public sale, to the highest bidder, the following described real estate belonging to the estate aforesaid, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the demands against said estate, and costs of administration, to-wit:

All that parcel or tract of land described as the west half of the tract purchased by W H. Frush and W F Allen and lying between the division road and the Willamette river and divided into lots—one containing 15 acres, two containing 13¾ acres, three containing 6¼ acres, four containing 11⅛ acres, five containing 14½ acres, six containing 3⅛ acres.

And, on the 1st day of May, A. D 1867, at the court house door, county and State aforesaid, between the hours of 9 o'clock A. M and 4 P M, seven blocks numbered 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, on the recorded map of "Frush's Square Addition to East Portland," subdivided into building lots, as follows:

The north half of block 10 and blocks 4, 5 and 6 are subdivided into lots 50 by 100 feet.

Number 7 of said map is 200 by 260 feet; has on it Mrs. Frush's residence, garden, orchard, &c

Twenty-four lots, 25 by 100 feet, fronting on J street, north side. This street is covered at the terminus by the bridge.

Eight lots of 25 by 100 feet lying on I street, between Third and Fourth, being the north half of block No 8

The whole of the property, except blocks one and six, which are on the bottom, are on high ground, the most eligible and desirable for dwelling or business lots of any in East Portland.

A map of the property can be seen at A. B Richardson's and also at the County Clerk's office

Ten per cent of the purchase money to be paid at the time of sale; the remainder on the confirmation of the sale by the county court.

Costs of deed to be borne by purchasers.

DR. HENLEY'S
Fountain of Life!
THE
GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER!

IN EVERY PROGRESSIVE SCIENCE PERIODS ARrive when a new direction is imparted to its course. These epochs proceed from discovery of new facts shedding light which changes the whole aspect of the science The present is an epoch of this kind, and this Great Remedy, now offered to the public, in connection with the theory on which it is based, is destined to effect an entire revolution in the treatment of the diseases of

SCROFULA AND KING'S EVIL!

by eradicating the disease entirely from the blood The FOUNTAIN OF LIFE is composed entirely of vegetable extracts; it contains no Mercury or other mineral substance

The Proprietor and Discoverer of this Sovereign Remedy CHALLENGES THE WORLD to furnish anything, from the days of Æsculapius down to the present time, in the arcana of Medical Science, which can vie with or excel the intrinsic properties of this Great Blood Purifier Its value has been tested with the happiest effect in the most obstinate cases of Scrofula, that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians in the world No matter what form the dreadful disease of SCROFULA and KING'S EVIL may have assumed, it can in no way be more safely and certainly arrested in its progress than by HENLEY'S GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER. Thousands have been swept into their graves, who had they made a timely use of the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE, might now be enjoying the blessings of life and health It requires an article of rare merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself During the stern ordeal of public experiment the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE has stood the test trial, and not been found wanting

☞ Dr HENLEY guarantees to CURE any case of SCROFULA or KING'S EVIL in the world, and eradicate the disease entirely from the system, or no charge made—provided they will secure him his pay when they are cured

FOR REFERENCE:

I would refer you to L. L. Peck, of Portland, Oregon, and numbers of others, as to what a miraculous effect it had in a short time, in cases that had baffled the skill of physicians for years.

DR. G W. BROWN

HAS located in Portland, in CARTER'S NEW BUILDING, for the permanent cure of all private diseases, such as syphilis, gonorrhea, gleet, strictures &c. He also calls the attention of those suffering with

DISEASES OF THE EYES

to call at his office and be at once restored. Surgical operations SKILLFULLY performed on the EYES for fistula, cataract, strabismus or cross eyes

Below are some of the many testimonials:

This is to certify that I, John B. Jodwan, was blind for over nine years, and I tried all means of a cure, and many doctors, and all of no effect, and I spent all the means I had. Finally, I had to become a county charge, and when I was taken to Dr G W. Brown, and stated my case to him, and misfortune, he at once consented to treat my eyes, and now I am well, and commend all those that are suffering with diseases of the eyes to call on Dr. G. W. Brown The reason why I do this is to let suffering humanity know where they can be cured J B JODWAN.

STATE OF OREGON, Marion County, ss.—Subscribed and sworn to before me this 23d day of November, 1865.
SETH R HAMMER, Notary Public.

SATURDAY, Feb 10, 1866.

This is to certify that my daughter was almost blind for over seven years, and was doctored by other physicians without obtaining any relief, when finally I took her to Dr G W Brown, who examined her case, and at once began to give her treatment, and her sight has been entirely restored I do this to let those who are suffering with diseases of the eyes know where they can obtain a cure It has been three years since her eyes were cured, and they are yet sound

THOMAS LIVINGSTON,
Deer Creek Precinct, Douglas county, Oregon.

SALEM, July 21, 1866.

This is to certify that I was blind for over four months, and almost blind for one year and a half, I tried several eye doctors but received no benefit; I had almost given my case up as hopeless when fortunately I heard of Dr. G. W. Brown, now of Salem. I was induced to try him; he performed a surgical operation on my eyes, and gave me treatment I soon began to recover, and in a short time I was perfectly cured. I do this in justice to one who rescued me from a fate worse than death, and also for the benefit of those who are laboring under similar afflictions that they may know where they can get relief. It is now about eight months since my eyes were cured and they still remain good I can see to read the finest print without difficulty, and my eyes can bear the strongest light without pain

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Doctor Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Corner of North Front and C Streets,
PORTLAND, OREGON.

THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD RESPECTFULLY inform the citizens of Portland and the traveling community, that he is now ready to receive and entertain all who may favor him with a call, in a manner and at prices to suit the times.

"THE GLOBE" is a NEW HOUSE, just finished; the rooms are large, well ventilated and eligibly furnished with carpets, &c., &c. The table will always be supplied with the very best the market affords.

It will be the constant and earnest endeavor of the proprietor to so conduct the "GLOBE HOTEL" as to give entire satisfaction to his guests; he would therefore respectfully solicit the patronage of the public.
my31tm PHILIP SCHAD,

VANCOUVER HOUSE,
Foot of Main Street, opposite the Steamboat Landing,
VANCOUVER, W. T.

THE undersigned begs leave to inform the public that he has lately opened the above-named House, and is now ready to receive guests His table will be well supplied and he has very superior accommodations for lodging. The House has been thoroughly renovated and enlarged, and being conveniently located near the several steamboat landings, commends itself particularly to the transient custom. The proprietor, by strict attention to the comfort of his patrons, hopes to receive a due share of the public patronage. H. REINHARDT, mh22d3m Proprietor.

GOOD GRUB AND PLENTY OF IT!
AT THE
Bennett House,
SALEM, OREGON.
L. JAY S. TURNEY,

HAVING LEASED THE ABOVE NAMED HOTEL, is prepared to accommodate the traveling public, and ONE HUNDRED REGULAR BOARDERS, in as good style as any House on the Coast. He has determined to make the "Bennett" as good as the best and better than any public house in Salem. He will soon complete some important improvements, which will add greatly to its appearance and comfort, and intends to merit and hopes to receive his share of patronage.

He has secured the services of "Charley" (known to be the best cook in Salem, and one of the best in the whole country) and other competent persons to manage the culinary department, and is resolved to set as good a table as can be found anywhere—not in clap-trap, pomp and show, flummery and fine furniture, but in an abundant supply of the very best the market affords

His Bar room will be kept warmed and lighted, and well supplied with newspapers, periodicals and other suitable reading matter, and kept in a manner which will make it an agreeable resort.

In short, he intends making an effort to please ALL who stop at the BENNETT HOUSE And he most respectfully requests his friends everywhere to give the old and well known stand at least one more trial before concluding they can do as well elsewhere, and promises if they are not well treated, and properly cared for, and at reasonable figures, it will not be the fault of the public's most obedient and most humble servant,

L. JAY S TURNEY,

N. B.—Furnished rooms, with or without board, by the day, week or month, at the Bennett, charges moderate. L J. S T.

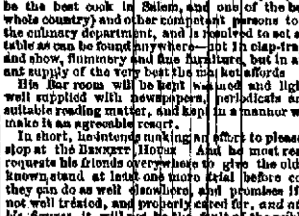
LEFFEL'S
AMERICAN DOUBLE TURBINE



THESE WHEELS, unequaled and unrivaled in the United States or the world, have been fully tested on this coast, more than forty being in use at this date, driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills, Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories, &c &c

On account of the extraordinary demand, our stock of wheels is considerably reduced, and we are entirely out of several sizes, therefore parties contemplating using our wheel, to be certain of securing them in time should give their order at least three months before they expect to get them, that we may be able to make them by the time needed

We cheerfully refer to all using our wheels, and are assured that all will affirm that our wheels accomplish all and even more than we claim for them Address
